Instructions:

This is my gift to my stitching friends from 123 - In particular the Aussie Contingent who understand the phrase "Smile & Point your toes!"

Please have fun with this design - feel free to use whatever colours will suit your decor or whim. I can see the border stitched in vibrant hand-dyed varigated thread rather than the two colours it has been charted in.

Please don't chart my initials in the top left corner - add your own!

There is plenty of space if you wish to add charms or buttons and it shouldn't be too intense for even the novice stitcher to complete.

The verse is truly heartfelt :-

"When I count Life's greatest riches,
I count my friends who count their stitches"
